Chamber Spotlight
Olivia's LLC
By: Elliot Kelley

Our eleventh Chamber Spotlight for the Wellsville Chamber of Commerce is Olivia's LLC, which is owned and operated by Bert Molenda and located at 517 Main Street, Wellsville. Olivia's sells one of a kind upcycled clothing and accessories, along with new limited quantity clothing. Whether it be jewelry, scented candles, baby items or women's clothing (Small to 3XL), Olivia's has an amazing variety of items to appeal to everyone.

Molenda previously operated a pop-up shop along with the owner of the Torn Edge in Gardner, but later moved to Wellsville and had the grand opening for Olivia's on June 30, 2021. She believes one of her best decisions was moving her business to Wellsville and operating in a stationary place, instead of continually doing events and shows.

On October 27, Olivia's LLC teamed up with The Torn Edge, Wellsville Antiques and Hot Off the Press to offer their first-ever Ladies Night Out. The event was a great success for Molenda, as she was able to display her unique items and sell a variety of pieces and products. She hopes to do more events like this to establish name recognition and promotion of her business.

A typical day for Molenda starts with sewing, unpacking orders, and waiting on customers. Her hours of operation are Tuesday through Friday (10 am to 6 pm), Saturday (10 am to 3 pm), and closed on Sunday and Monday. Olivia's values the supportiveness of the Wellsville community and hopes she gets the opportunity to meet more community members as time goes on.

Molenda's biggest challenge is finding new items to stock in the store and keeping up with the new items on the market. However, she is working tirelessly to find unique items for her customers. For the future, Molenda plans to increase the types of items in her store, have more variety in her clothing, and keep doing what she's doing. With the continued support of the community, she looks forward to being a fixture on Wellsville's Main Street.
